

Livelihoods Classification Scheme ver. 2.0

A separate record should be created for each type of product

Field Name	Options	Descriptor
General Harvest Details
1. Scale of Use	Local National Regional Global	select one of the drop-down options
2. Name of location/country/region	<free text field>	should be left blank if global
3. Date		Date when livelihoods information was gathered
4. Description of product	<free text field>	e.g. skin, meat, horn, fibre, etc.
For single Species Harvest
5a. Estimated annual harvest of the product	<numerical value>
5b. Units	volume (cubic metres) weight (in kg) number of individuals	select one of the drop-down options
When Part of a Multi-species Harvest
6a. Estimated annual multi-species harvest	<numerical value>
6b. Units	volume (cubic metres) weight (in kg) number of individuals	select one of the drop-down options
Users
7. Primary level of human reliance on this product	Emergency resource	select one of the drop-down options

Optional alternative
Essential staple
Geographically variable
Not known

8. Who are the primary harvesters of this resource?

8a. Men select one of the drop-down options
Women Children
Multiple
Not known

8b. Poorer households select one of the drop-down options
All households
Richer households
Other group (specify in notes)
Not known

8c. <free text field> notes field for this information

Value to Livelihoods

9. Proportion (as %) of total population benefitting from this product

0-1% select one of the drop-down options
2-10%
11-25%
26-50%
51-100%
Not known

10. Proportion (as %) of household consumption (if dietary as a % of protein/carbohydrate)

0-25% select one of the drop-down options

- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- 76-100%
- Not known

11. Proportion (as %) of household income for this product

- 0-25%
- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- 76-100%
- Not known

select one of the drop-down options

Value to Economy

12. Annual cash income from this product - gross (in US$)

<numerical value>